

BLUE AND GOLD BAND CLUB MEETING MINUTES

November 28, 2005

The meeting was called to order by Kriss Martenson at 7:35 pm. The minutes for the October were tabled until January meeting

Treasurer's Report- Karen Johnson

- Treasurer's report filed with no comments or questions

Vice President's Report- Betsy Dugan

- Sign up sheets going around for Bobcat's Arena. Next event is December 4 and then December 12, 2005. No students under 18 are allowed at arena. Discussion about carpooling and parking.
- Verizon budget not as far off as thought.
- We are not doing Winthrop games this year. They are doing something different and don't need us.

President's Report- Kriss Martenson

- Trips went well. The students were good.
- Reminder that although marching season is over, band is a full year. Please stay involved.
- No booster club meeting in December. Next meeting is January 30.

Director's Report- Martin Dickey

- Please make payments for BOA, uniforms, fall instrument rentals, etc. These are now past due and bills have already been paid so please pay those fees.
- Discussion about the effect of opening a new school on the band program. No decisions have been made. We will have five successful band programs.
- Important dates- December 3-Christmas parade. Students need to be in band room at 9 am. December 6 concert will be at three locations simultaneously. High school concert to start at 7:30 pm
- Spring calendar will be coming out soon with percussion, winter guard, region band, etc. dates. If you would like information on region band, go to www.bandlink.org.
- Pictures from BOA are available at www.jolesch.com and do a search for the event.
- Discussion about judging events. The students are reminded that anything is possible, judges are human and sometimes the judges do not agree. Fort Mill moved from 30th place in pre-lims to 22nd in semi finals.

Committee Reports:

- Fruit is coming in on Thursday at 9 am. Need help unloading the truck. Points are only given for boxes of fruit.
- New Christmas flags have been sewn by Jan Arnold and her crew. They were made without having to purchase any new fabric!

Meeting adjourned at 8:33 pm.

Next meeting is January 30, 2006.
